Kind Advice Appreciated.

Editor and Proprietor P. Hall Packer, of Seabright, recently wrote a letter of advice to James G. Blaine, and has just received a reply. Following are the letters:

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE—Dear Sir: As a friend and admirer of you as a republican, and one who worked hard and faithfully to secure your election to the Presidency, allow me to suggest that you at once stop denouncing the prohibitionists, or you will bury the republican party so deep that resurrection will be impossible.
As all good citizens know, the prohibition cause is just and right, and is rapidly progressing. New Jersey will give the Prohibition gubernatorial candidate this fall over 30,000 votes, of which 20,000 at least will be from the republican party.

For God's sake advise our party to come out square for prohibition! We need a new issue, and on this one alone we can win in both State and nation. Let our party, which has always been the party of reform and progress, take up this question, as they did slavery, and settle it forever.
Yours truly,
P. HALL PACKER.

P. HALL PACKER, Esq.—My Dear Sir: Yours of 6th at hand. Thanks for your very kind advice. Yours very respectfully, JAMES G. BLAINE.

BAR HARBOR, Sept. 20.

Not a Life to Save.

I love pretty well to save old maids shander the young man. That shows they will never make them young men unhappy by getting married with me.

I love pretty well to save young men shander around a church door, and see bees as come out. That shows they are on the verge of death.

walk the street over, and see pretty late out on the night. That shows they have lost their courage.

I love to save young men drink whisky and get drunk like donkeys. Then he falls off the fence and knows about it and you find it pretty quick out.

I love to save young men and make dark and life in prison. That shows they have fine feelings, and look some interesting in things that are serious.

I love to save babies make trouble with mine plagues. That comes from there life with me, and how I got along.

I love to save some babies live and make humpage on Sunday. That was a sign they got more as a parcel of regard to day out.

I love to hear you speak after say paid anudder von. That was a sure thing they have got a good reputation themselves.

How to Keep Cider Sweet.

—Pure
sweet cider that is arrested in the process of fermentation before it becomes acetic acid or alcohol, and with carbonic acid gas worked out, is one of the most delightful beverages. The following scientific method of treating cider, preserves its sweetness: When the saccharine matters by fermentation are being converted into alcohol, if a bunt tube be inserted airtight into the bung, with the other end into a pail of water, to allow the carbonic acid gas evolved to pass off without admitting any air into the barrel, a beverage will be obtained that is fit for the gods. A handy way is to fill your cask nearly up to the faucet when the cask is rolled so that the bung is down. Get a common rubber tube and slip it over the end of the plug in the faucet, with the other end in the pail. Then turn the plug so the cider can have communication with the pail. After the water ceases to bubble, bottle or store away.
[Farm, Field and Fireside.]

THEY NEVER STRIKE—There is a class of people in this country who get up at five o'clock in the morning and who never get back into bed until ten or eleven o'clock at night; who work without ceasing the whole of that time, and receive no other emolument than food and plainest clothing. They understand something of every branch of economy and labor, from finance to cooking. Though harassed by a hundred responsibilities, though driven and worried, though reproached and looked down upon, they never revolt; and they can not organize for their own protection.
Not even sickness releases them from their pains. No sacrifice is deemed too great for them to make, and no incompetency in any branch of their work is excused. No essays or books or poems are written in tribute to their steadfastness. They die in the harness and are supplanted as quickly as may be. These are the house-keeping wives of the laboring men.—[Chicago Shoe and Leather Review.]

There is this difference between the zealot and the religious man: The first spends his time battling for his particular creed, the latter spends his in living an upright life; the one damns all but him and his kind, the other prays salvation for all mankind.—[Wallace Gruelle.]

Letter From Laurel.

[To the Editor of the Interior Journal.]

McWHORTER, Oct. 5.—As I have been quartered in this portion of Laurel county for a month and having been to a considerable extent associated with quite a number of its citizens, and on leisure days traveled the country over, I wish to say something of the citizens and of the section up this way. The people are of the most hospitable nature, kind and obliging one to another, frugal and industrious; quiet and peaceable, and little or no trouble brews among them. The latch-string to their doors always hangs upon the outside of their dwellings, and though he be a stranger in their midst, he is ever a welcome guest and the kindest and best of attention is given him. A kinder and more friendly people do not inhabit any part of the earth.
The finest and best of timber and in great abundance abounds here, and the whole country is imbedded with the best of stone coal from 3 to 4 feet in thickness. The soil is good, the land producing from 6 to 10 barrels of corn to the acre, and wheat, oats and the various grasses grow well and are quite remunerative to the farmer. It is also a fine tobacco country, splendid crops of tobacco being produced in this part of the country.

McWhorter is a small town just starting up, and is situated upon Rockcastle River and near the county lines of Laurel, Clay and Jackson. There are now some good buildings in the place, some 8 or 10 dwellings, two dry goods stores, and good ones, owned by Captain D. B. House and Mc-Whorter & Bulling. The business houses as well as dwellings are new and good ones.
It also has a large steam saw mill, also run by Capt. D. B. House, who is a very energetic and thorough business man. They have a semi-weekly mail at McWhorter and their postmaster, Major Cannon Mc-Whorter, is just one of the best kind of fellows, and an attentive man to business. It is a beautiful site for the building up of quite a town. The valley of the river is rich and fertile land.

Should the Kentucky Central railroad company ever wish to make an extension of its line from its present terminus—the Sink of the Roundstone—south, it can find no more practicable route than to run up Rockcastle river to its head and cross the low gap at Back's Store, which is the divide between the waters of Rockcastle river and the waters of Goose creek; thence on down Black Water, passing a little to the left of Barboursville and striking the Valley of the Cumberland at or near Pineville.
The citizens are of the opinion that there would be but two short tunnels from the present terminus of the road to Back Water and none from there on to the Cumberland; and a finer timber and coal region was never traversed by a railroad.

D. N. WILLIAMS.

CODICIL.

O. J. Lee, I see the republicans of the 8th Congressional district have hitched up a man against Gov. McCreary for Congress Fellows, you had better not venture too far in that direction. The Governor is very popular and even in Laurel, as a republican it is, he is going to pull a large vote in November, and don't you forget it.
D. N. W.

A Plentiful Lack of Hair.

Scientists have been asserting for some time that the man of the future is to be without hair—less barbarous, as it were, than the uncivilized races of the preceding ages. Straws continue to show that the scientists are right. According to a writer in Popular Science 48 per cent. of men at a Paris concert were bald, while only 12 per cent. were without hair on their heads at a Sullivan prize fight. Thus does advancing culture do away with hair.
An interesting test has been made which shows that beards also are disappearing beneath the crush of advancing civilization.
Gen. Boulanger, looked forward to the time when the French should "beard" the Germans in his den, has ordered his soldiers to let their beards grow. But the beards will not grow. The ambitious private may exclaim "Parbleu!" and "Sacré!" as much as he chooses, but his beard still fails to assume a military fierceness.

The French have become too civilized as a nation to raise whiskers which shall awe their foes. They must hereafter conquer by intellect and not by hair. The whole enlightened race might as well become reconciled to the same fate which has overtaken the French army.

A college student once translated the Greek words, gymnastikon kallos (beauty of the body), "the bald head of the beautiful." In the language of the proof reader, let it stand. It is the translation which is most pertinent to our modern lack of hair.
"The bald head of the beautiful" seem destined to become the striking feature of the generations near at hand.—[World.]

"Did you know that a cigar dealer buys as the law nearly every time you buy a cigar?" asked an officer of a Gazette representative the other day.

"Well, no, I did not know it," was the scribe's response. "How does he do it?"

"Just this way," pursued the officer.
"You call for a cigar, the dealer takes a handful from the box, spreads them out before you, and after you have selected what you want he returns the remainder to the box. This is a violation of the law. The dealer has no right to return those cigars to the box, and he could be punished for it."

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

Our public and high schools have been united and are now being taught in the College building. Some 90 odd pupils have been enrolled on the books. Mrs. Tarrant has employed Miss Elmunda, of Louisville, to assist her; the latter teaching the public school and the former the college department.

Miss Mollie Brooks will begin giving art lessons to a class of young ladies at her home next week. She is a fine artist and all who desire to take lessons would do well to patronize her. A few days ago we were shown a large picture which she is now painting in all an ways finished will be a worthy specimen of her talent and ability.

On last Tuesday night, after a lingering illness of consumption, Mrs. Sam Hazleton entered the world of spirits. Her remains were taken to Lancaster on Wednesday and interred in the cemetery there. She leaves a husband and three little children to mourn her departure; but not refuse those who mourn without hope, for they have the sweet assurance that she was prepared for death and ready to answer the Master's call.

The meeting at the Christian church will continue. We have large congregations and much interest is manifested, tho' no confessions yet. All who have heard Mr. Montgomery preach are well pleased with him. Mr. Sim Cook has kindly placed an organ in the church to be used during the meeting. The members are seriously thinking of purchasing it to use all the time. Miss Annie Holmes presides as organist and the sweet music adds much to the interest of the meeting, which will continue until after next Sunday.

Mr. George James has returned from Louisville with a new stock of goods. Mr.
D. C. Payne has opened a new grocery in the corner store-room of the Harris House.
Rev. Mr. Dawson and wife are boarding at Mrs. Barker's and not at Mr. Ward's, as reported last week. Mr. Eliza Carson has rented rooms from Mrs. Clara Singleton and gone to housekeeping. Mrs. Tarrant has rented and moved into Miss Jennie Bachman's house on Lancaster street, opposite the College.

Mrs. Lucien Laidley, who has been confined to her bed for over a week, is now able to sit up. Mr. Joe Brooks is doing with fever, but improving at this writing.
Lt. Scott is quite ill and in a very critical condition. We are glad to report that Miss Sallie Green is fast recovering from a severe fall from her horse several days ago.
While crossing the creek the horse's foot slipped, thus throwing Miss Sallie from the saddle. Her shoulder was dislocated and she has suffered greatly from the fall tho' not seriously.

Mr. Robert Collier and his pretty bride are now boarding at Mr. Mack Holmes', but intend to go to housekeeping in a short time. When the news reached here that they had been married in Stanford, it created quite a sensation. Mr.
Henry Fulmer and Miss Lura Doree ac-complicated them and what surprised us most was that there were not two weddings instead of one. Although rather late, we extend to the bride and groom our hearty congratulations and wish for them happiness, prosperity and long life.

Mr. Frank Fox, of Danville, spent a day or two here this week. His visits are becoming quite frequent and if Madam Rumor be correct he will soon take from our midst one of our loveliest young ladies.
Will our young men permit this? Also Mr. Hinton, of Danville, paid C. O. a flying visit. He had better be careful, else a Crow will attack him. Mr. and Mrs. John Bachman have gone on a visit to relatives in Vermont. Miss Annie Scott, of Jessamine, is the guest of Miss Belle Livingston. Mr. and Mrs. George McRoberts, of Rush Branch, spent several days this week with Mrs. W. T. Stephenson. Mrs. Jael Casper is visiting in Mt. Vernon. Mrs.
W. T. Green, who formerly lived here, has arrived and will spend the winter with Mrs.
Mary Carson. They are now visiting in Danville. Miss Nannie Kennedy is the guest of Mrs. Robert Collier. Miss Maggie Newland is spending a few days with Mrs.
John Bailey. Miss Kate Robinson is the guest of Mrs. Fannie Elmiston. Mr. Porter Robinson and family have moved to Mrs. Logan's near Stanford. Our people sincerely regret their having moved from here.

NUMBER OF HAIRS IN A HEAD—An eminent German has undergone the enormous labor of counting the number of hairs in heads of four different colors. In a blonde he found 140,400 hairs; in a brown, 100,440; in a black, 102,902; and in a red one, 88,740. What the red and black heads wanted in number of hairs was made up, however, in the greater bulk of the hairs individually, and in all probability the scalps were all pretty equal in weight. It is to the fineness and multiplicity of hairs that blonde tresses owe their rich color and silk-like character of their flow, a circumstance which artists have so loved to dwell upon.—[Chicago Tribune.]

A paper at Winston, N. C., publishes a card by a young lady which sets forth that her fiancé having broken the engagement between them, "and engaged himself to a woman whose husband had been dead only three months," she feels called on to say to the public that "during the engagement he borrowed money from me, which he never paid back, pretending to buy land with it.
I don't want him and wouldn't have him since I have found him out."

RELIGIOUS.

Ed. J. B. Sweeney has been elected for the 17th year to fill the pulpit of the Christian church at Paris.

We received a telegram from Louisville yesterday from Elder John Bell Gibson stating that a protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church next Sunday.
Ed. G. W. Yandey, of Lancaster, will assist the pastor in the services.

At the trial of Elder Jasper Grubbs before the Christian Church, of Sugar Creek, he was acquitted, though the opinion of the church was that he was indiscreet. The offense consisted of lying down in a stateroom on the steamer Hornet with a young lady with whom he was traveling and who was in his charge.—[Cincinnati Democrat.]

Rev. J. E. Triplett will preach at Mc-Kinney next Saturday morning and on Sunday morning and night. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated after the morning sermon on Sunday and all Christians are most cordially invited to participate. These will be the last sermons preached at McKinney before he leaves for his new field of labor in Alabama.

The Northern Methodist Conference closed its session at Lexington this week and will meet next time in Greensburg. In this district G. N. Jolly, who will live at Middleburg, is appointed presiding elder; H. O. Barnett goes to Highland; J. M.
Oliver to Middleburg; B. E. Whiteman to Mintonsville; Frederick Grider to Nichol-sville and W. H. Childers to Somerset.
Jacob Halpenny was sent to Lyndon and S. F. Kelley to Williamsburg.

The Lutheran Observer joins with other newspapers in advocating changing the time for the national Thanksgiving Day from "black November to golden October." It says that November was chosen by the Puritans to bring the day near the Chris-mas time that it might take the place of that festival, to which they were opposed.
But now that all Christians observe Chris-mas there is no reason for appointing Thanksgiving Day so late in the year.

A Kentucky planter was so pleased with the acting of a little girl in a play at Louisville that the next day he sent her a fine large doll to "amuse her when out at the theatre." This is the reply he received:
"Kind friend, have just received your note and package containing the doll; thanks very much. The doll is very handsome. I showed it to my husband, and we think it will be great amusement for me."

A petition signed by many thousands of persons will be presented to the Legislature of Oregon next winter, asking the enactment of a law to prohibit liquor sellers from placing signs before their doors, or framing or shading their windows so as to protect the "business" from the public view.—[Chicago Times.]

Little Tommy, an interesting boy, but timid when left alone in a dark room, was overheard recently by his mother to say in his loneliness: "O, Lord, don't let anybody hurt me, and I'll go to church next Sunday and give you some money."

King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding result, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr.

BOURNE!

—FROM WHENCE—
No Traveler Returns Sick!

In these tight times each buyer should consult his own interests. Why should you give one manufacturer 60c for an article when you can buy the same thing from another for 40c. To do this is not justice to yourself or family.

In the next place, you should beware to get good articles. Poor goods are dear at any price. Nowhere is this more so than in Medicine. You might as well pay 50c an ounce for saw dust as for inferior medicines.

Bourne has just received his large stock of Medicines of all kinds. Every article fresh from the manufacturers. He now has the nicest and cheapest selection of fancy goods, show case articles, &c.,
